By a late decision of the Comptroller of the Treasury all officers below the rank of Brigadier General who were in service during any part of the time between July 1, 1866, and July 1, 1868, are entitled to the benefit of the Act of March 2, 1867, for such part of the time as they were in service. All officers who were in service on March 3, 1867, have been paid, although they may have forgotten or overlooked the fact. The only persons who can be benefited by this new ruling are those who resigned or were honorably discharged between July 1, 1866, and March 2, 1867.

Chas. Schurz, in a recent magazine article, says that the two great parties are in a peculiar condition, inasmuch as the quarrels of factions within each are much fiercer than contests between the two.

A DEMOCRATIC PROTEST.

Reasons Given Why Lieut. Gov. Adams Should Not Be Nominated for Governor.

EUREKA, April 28th, 1882.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—There appears to be a disposition on the part of the friends of Jewett W. Adams to force him to the front as the most available and fit person in his party to receive the nomination for Governor at the ensuing Democratic Convention.

These active and forward friends of the Lieutenant Governor will find out, ere the meeting of the Convention, that they have undertaken a task more difficult to perform than to conceive.

There are many reasons to urge, why Governor Adams should be permitted at the close of this year, to retire to the shades of private life, and thenceforth to give his attention to watching his herds, branding his calves and marketing his beavers. Among these are:

First, He has held office eight years, and his nomination for Governor would be in violation of the spirit of the resolves of his party, heretofore, on the subject of Third Term.

Second, During his eight years of official life, he has given no evidence of any peculiar fitness for the office of Governor, nor has he said or done anything to convince the people, whose Chief Magistrate he seeks to become, that he has any special claim to that high distinction. Twice has he been a candidate for Lieutenant Governor of his State, twice has he canvassed it and twice has he been elected, yet at neither of these times has he ever made a speech or written a line to promote his own election or to secure the success of his party ticket. The truth is, he has not the ability to do either. But the overshadowing reason why the Convention should not nominate Mr. Adams for Governor will be found in the following statement of facts, which the writer hereof challenges either the Lieutenant Governor or his friends to deny or dispute:

In 1874 the law gave to the Lieutenant Governor as presiding officer of the Senate ten dollars a day. (See Vol. II, Compiled Laws, Sec. 2720, p. 64.) Section 4237, of the same volume, reads as follows:

"The Lieutenant Governor shall be ex-officio Adjutant General and State Librarian, and he shall perform all duties required by law in connection with the offices of Adjutant General and State Librarian. His compensation for such services shall be thirty-six hundred dollars per annum, payable quarterly in the same manner as is provided for the payment of the salaries of other State officers."

Thus stood the law in 1875, when Governor Adams went into office, and thus it continued through that year and the following year of 1876.

For these two years I charge it upon Jewett W. Adams that he drew his ten dollars per diem, the compensation allowed him by law, for presiding over the Senate during the session of 1875. That in addition to this sum he drew his salary of thirty-six hundred dollars per annum, for the years 1875 and 1876, and did not render the service due to the State as its Librarian, as the law required him to do. In other words he shirked his duty in this respect, and engaged Mr. Bartlett Mitchell to act as State Librarian, who did so act for the two full years of 1875 and 1876. The fair thing, I submit to the taxpayers of the State, for Governor Adams to have done, would have been to have gone down in his own pocket and paid Mr. Mitchell for the services performed, and not to log-roll a bill through the Legislature for that purpose as was done.

If it did not comport with the dignity of the Lieutenant Governor of the State to discharge the duties of Librarian, primarily Mr. Adams should not have sought the office—should not have entered into a contract, so to speak, with the people of the State to perform those duties and then to violate his official obligations. If other engagements precluded him from giving his time and attention to the State Library, as the law directed and provided, and if such engagements necessitated the employment of a clerk, the plain duty of Mr. Adams was, himself, to pay the clerk. Did he do this?

Let the people of the State find the answer to this question as follows:

"An Act to provide for the payment of services of the Clerk in State Library for the years eighteen hundred and seventy-five and eighteen hundred and seventy-six. (Approved Feb'y 3d. 1877.)

SECTION 1. The sum of thirty-six hundred ($3600) dollars is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the State Treasury of this State not otherwise appropriated by law, or which may come into said State Treasury, for the payment of services of Clerk in Library for the years eighteen hundred and seventy-five and eighteen hundred and seventy-six.

SEC. 2. The Controller of State is hereby directed to draw his warrant in favor of said Library Clerk for said amount, and the State Treasurer is hereby directed to pay the same."

Let it be remembered that at the date of this enactment, and at no time prior thereto was there any such officer known to the law as "Library Clerk." Now, on this statement of the law and facts, I charge Governor Adams with having pocketed thirty-six hundred dollars of the people's money, to not a farthing of which was he entitled either legally, equitably or in good conscience. It was in point of fact a "grab"—a "haul"—before which and in comparison to which the "Back Salary Grab" of Congress must "pale its ineffectual fires."

With this stubborn and incontrovertible record staring Governor Adams in the face, I submit it to the Democratic party of Nevada, I submit it to the people of the State, regardless of their party affections or political proclivities, if Jewett W. Adams is the man for the Democracy to nominate for Governor, or the people to elect?

Should the ensuing Democratic Convention conclude to nominate him for its standard bearer, notwithstanding this record, let it recall C. W. Kendall, expunge from its resolutions of 1874, that one on the back-salary-grab, which gave to poor Kendall his political death blow and sent him a miserable exile to Pauper Alley. I say, let them recall Kendall and atone for the injustice done him in 1874, by conferring upon him, by a unanimous vote, the nomination for Congress, to succeed Hon. George W. Cassidy.

DEMOCRAT.

A Tremendous Crop.

Dr. Glenn, of Colusa, Cal., hopes to raise a million bushels of wheat this year. He has promised his foreman a bonus of $10,000 if that quantity is harvested on his ranch this season. From all accounts, there is a prospect that the foreman will get the "stake." It is understood that Glenn would now rather raise a million bushels of wheat in one year than be Postmaster. On his ranch of say 60,000 acres this yield would be 16 2/3 bushels to the acre. When it comes to raising grain by the million bushels there is something in farming that excites the imagination.

The "Silver-Tongued."

The ironical dispatch sent from Tucson to Washington on the 25th instant in regard to Indian matters, was written by Tom Fitch, the "Silver-tongued Orator of Nevada." The Arizona Citizen says:

After the regular meeting adjourned, Mr. Fitch again called the assembly of people to order, and stated that he had a resolution to offer which the Governor knew nothing about, and which might cause him to feel embarrassed if he did. In view of the grand military and naval display to take place at Fortness Monroe to-morrow, where the President of the United States and Congress will be banqueting, and hundreds of thousands of dollars be expended, Arizona should not be altogether unrepresented. As representatives of Arizona he, therefore, sent a few skeletons.

Dog Trains in Wood River.

[Wood River Times, April 5th.]

There is between five and six feet of snow in the Sawtooth range on a level, and three to six weeks must elapse before it can be crossed by wagons. The only means of communication at present is on snowshoes or by dog train. Mr. Smith, one of Dow's stage drivers rigged up one of these a week ago. He left Ketchikan Sunday night, with another man, six dogs and five hundred pounds of bacon and sugar on a toboggan, and made nine miles before the crust softened so that he was compelled to stop. The dogs were untrained, however, and will do much better as they become used to travel. They are fed on oatmeal mush. On the return trip Mr. Smith will load up with red fish.

At the Lake.

The Carson Index of Sunday says: The Lake Tahoe narrow gauge road was yesterday opened for the Summer's business, and the first engine reached the summit. The road from Carson to the summit is now in good condition and communication is consequently now open with the lake. About Thursday next the Glenbrook rails will begin operations; and on next Wednesday Messrs. Smart & Reynolds will begin fluming wood down from the summit. The prospects are good for a busy Summer.

The Ideal State.

[New Albany Ledger.]

Capital and labor should work hand in hand, and proportionately share the values they have mutually produced. Nature gives the raw material; labor and skill give it its value; capital gives direction, and advances reward to labor and skill, waiting until in its turn it can realize on its outlays. There are mutually dependent on each other, and should mutually labor for each other's interest—capital recognizing the want of labor, and labor in turn recognizing the rights of capital.

KIRKWOOD FOR CONGRESS.—The Chicago Tribune's Cedar Rapids, Ia., special of the 29th ult. says:

There is great speculation concerning Kirkwood's candidacy for Congress, not only in this district, but throughout the State. Adverses from Iowa City to-day indicate very clearly that while he will not come out as a candidate, yet he will accept the nomination, if tendered. He refused the first nomination tendered him many years ago, but was persuaded to accept. This has been the case with all the offices he has held. He never was the kind of candidate to race over a district or State, wearing himself out to secure a nomination, but the people secured it for him. Two of the candidates have signified their intention to withdraw in Kirkwood's favor, if he will accept a unanimous nomination.

AYER's HAIR VIGOR

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

To Its Natural Vitality and color.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.

Ayer's Hair Vigor, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair, immediately, often restores the original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the Vigor is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

Mr. A. H. Barnes is able to be up.
Dr. Hogan is still under the weather.
The Truckee is booming, and the water riley.

Ben Schloss, the incorrigible, was in town yesterday.

Mr. A. Lindley returned from the Bay yesterday morning.

Judge King is holding Court at Genoa. He will be here to-morrow.

P. N. Marker has gone to Eagle Lake to see how work is progressing.

Gen. Sherman and party passed Eastward yesterday morning in a special car.

The bills of the Virginia public schools for the month of April amount to $3,086 80.

Miss Mollie Roff left for Santa Cruz last night. She will spend the Summer at that delightful seaside resort.

B. F. Sheldon and wife intend to reside permanently in Reno. They are to leave Honey Lake about the first of next week.

The news from Newcastle, is to the effect that the yield of strawberries this season will be extraordinarily large. So much the better for Reno.

Assessments will no doubt be levied by the Savage and Alta M. Co.'s this week. Gould and Curry may also shy an assessment into the ring.

For the month of April these officers covered into the Treasury fees, as follows: Auditor, $248; Clerk, $383 90; Sheriff, $113 00; Assessor $9 40.

The Sunday School concert at the Congregational Church last Sunday evening was largely attended. The audience was estimated at 1000.

Rev. A. B. Palmer, of the Congregational Church, has been granted a vacation of two weeks, and will improve the time to visit a brother in California. Consequently, there will be no service at this church next Sabbath. Sunday School, as usual, at 12:30.

Mr. Garver, assignee, for the Banner Mill company, says that all claims against that institution will be paid on the 15th of May. Mr. Garver expects to file his final report as administrator about the first of June. Reno creditors will govern themselves accordingly.

Our old friend Dick Sides was down from Franktown yesterday. He says every thing is quiet up that way, but that they buried a blind squaw there the other day, and at the funeral Judge Harcourt acted as preacher, and Morris May as undertaker. Mr. Sides has left $10,000 in Government bonds at this office, to defray expenses in case a libel suit arises out of this item.

Mickel.

The gentleman who is at work upon the mickel mine near Lovelock's, has two car loads ready for shipment. Ten car loads are to be shipped to give the metal a thorough test.

Bad Eggs.

Constable Avery's suspicions of the fellow who resisted arrest Saturday, were confirmed yesterday by a dispatch from Matt Karcher, Chief of Police, of Sacramento, who telegraphed to hold Robertson until he could get a requisition, and to arrest his "pal," as both of them were wanted for burglary.

Temperance Social.

The ladies of the Temperance Union will observe the third anniversary of the Reform Club and Union by giving a social at Reform Club Hall on Tuesday evening, May 2nd. There will be literary and musical exercises; also refreshments will be served. All friends of temperance are cordially invited. Entertainment and refreshments free.

W. C. F. U.

The Women's Temperance Union at their last meeting adopted the constitution of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, thereby changing its name to W. C. T. U. At that meeting some new members were received. All ladies who are not now members and desire to be such are invited to meet with the society on Tuesday, May 2nd, at 2:50 p. m., at Reform Club Hall.

SUSANVILLE NOTES.

The Fruit Crop—Eagle Lake Tunnel—Notes.

[From Our Regular Correspondent.]

The farmers are about done farming. The season has been very unfavorable; almost a month later than last year. The peach crop will be light, as will the apricot, on account of the severity of the past Winter, all of the fruit being killed. The plum, pear, cherry and apple crop, no doubt, will be very good. The Eagle Lake Tunnel is in about 430 feet in very hard rock—so hard that from 10 to 12 drills are required for one hole.

The Odd Fellows' celebration here was a grand success.

The Reno and Susanville mail commenced to-day to make the trip in one day.

The freight teams that arrive are all heavily loaded with freight for our merchants.

Mr. U. W. Meybert, the new Receiver of the U. S. Land Office of this place, has opened a general line of merchandise in connection with the Land Office.

SUSANVILLE, May 1, 1892.

Another Bridge Wanted.

According to the Gazette the Verdi people intend to ask the County Commissioners for an appropriation of $1,000 to build a bridge across the Truckee river at a point five miles this side of Verdi, in order to avoid the "sand grade." The business men of that town will spend $1,000, and, as the work will cost about $2,000, they think the county ought to assist them in making the much needed improvement. The Commissioners have no right to appropriate $1000 for any such purpose. The Verdi folks must wait until the Legislature meets, when an Act can be passed to cover the case. The county built the Reno bridge at a cost of $16,000, the Wadsworth bridge at $4,000, and bought the Dull road in the south end for the convenience of the Washoe Valley people, and we know of no good reason why it should not build a bridge across the Truckee near Verdi for the accommodation of the people in that section.

Reward of Merit.

Charles Knust was the recipient of a very beautiful Past Master's jewel Saturday evening, presented to him by Reno Lodge, No. 13, F. & A. M. Mr. Knust having served his connection from the Lodge, the craft wished to acknowledge his valuable services in some way. The jewel is elaborately engraved on the front side, the back bearing the following inscription: "Presented P. M. Chas. Knust by Reno Lodge, No. 13, F. & A. M., April 29th, 1892."

THE TOWN OF LUNING.

A Promising Mining Town—Its Business and Growth—A Compromise Site for the County Seat of Esmeralda.

The Candelaria True (Fisura says "the young town of Luning on the line of the Carson and Colorado railroad between Hawthorne and Soda Springs is daily growing, and bids fair to attain dimensions in a short time that will entitle it to be called a city. The town now consists of one hotel and one restaurant, two saloons, one store, a butcher shop, assay office and express office and railway depot. More buildings are in course of erection, and W. G. Wilkinson has contracted to put up a new store for F. A. Angell of Hawthorne. It will probably be ready for occupancy by the first of June. I. B. Giles is also putting up a new saloon. Mr. Wilkinson bears a good reputation as a contractor and builder, and has located at Luning with the intention of staying. J. C. White will also go into business there and H. O. Bonham. Thus the town is gradually but surely growing, while the mines in the surrounding hills are proving richer each day. The stage for Grantsville, Downeyville, Ellsworth, Ione, Reese, River Valley and Austin leaves every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. About seven miles from the town in a northeasterly direction J. R. Benton has a large spring of water. The elevation of this spring is about four hundred feet above the town, and can be led to the town in concrete pipes in quantity sufficient to supply ten thousand inhabitants. Mr. Benton and other prominent citizens of the place say they will bring this water into Luning, provided they see an indication that the town will be permanent in its business. In order to make business permanent they propose making an effort to have the county seat located at Luning, and in the next attempt at moving it from Aurora the new aspirant will make its power felt. When the proper time comes for the discussion of the matter this paper purposes giving Luning a hearing. But in order to make any real progress the mines of Garfield, Santa Fe and Gillis Mountain must develop something permanent at a depth, and must prove that they can sustain a town. Six months more will do this. The hills are full of prospectors and every day new strikes are reported. These strikes, of course, are on the surface, and it will take time, money and muscle to determine their permanency and value."

Also the salaries of the various county officers.
